HILDEGARD Wow, this is amazing! This is my chance to take action and make a difference!

WILHELM Hi Hildegard, What are you so exited about?

HILDEGARD I'm going to be the class rep!

WILHELM Why would you want that?

HILDEGARD To make a difference here at school.

WILHELM Do you really think you'll actually influence the decisionmakers?

HILDEGARD What do you mean by "influence the decisionmakers"? It says right here that if i win i'll be the one making the decisions, or at least some of them.

WILHELM No, the only thing you'll be doing is occasionally stand in front of the class and try to tell the class what decision have been made by the grown-ups, while the class is doing anything but paying attention.

HILDEGARD Stop being such a negative, irritating bastard! Can't you let anyone be exited about stuff?

WILHELM I'm right though.

HILDEGARD Is that all you've got?

WILHELM Being right? isn't that all that matters?

HILDEGARD First of all you're not right, second, There's more stuff that matters. and do you think it's better not to do anything? Do you think we should just let those old meatbags decide about our future? Do you think it's better if they impose their traditional old values on us and our society, regulate, restrict and ruin the fun?

WILHELM (ironic) Wow, what a speech, Hildi, so you actually wanna go in there and do shit.

HILDEGARD If you would stop being so damn negative, maybe you might achieve something too someday!

WILHELM So you're asking questions, but do you have any real arguments or goals that could warrant such an effort? anything that could make me support you in your quest?

HILDEGARD I have so many ideas I'm gonna explode! I know you're vegetarian and that you always complain about the food in the canteen, how about we change something there? I will fight for fresh vegetables and fruits for every student and teacher! As you know an apple a day keeps the doctor away.

WILHELM Well you can talk like a politician, that's for sure, I guess I will support you then but I have to go to my next lesson now, bye.
